SECURITY

Indigo Brokes strives to ensure the security, integrity and privacy of personal information submitted. Indigo Brokes will review and update its security measures in accordance with future legislation and technological advances. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be totally secure, however, Indigo Brokes will endeavour to take all reasonable steps to protect the personal information, which an individual submits to Indigo Brokes or to Indigo Brokes's online products and services. Indigo Brokes will at all times set the highest standards to ensure the integrity of their systems.

Indigo Brokes may engage with other organisations to provide support services to Indigo Brokes. Third Parties are obliged to respect the confidentiality of any personal information held by Indigo Brokes. A Service Level agreement is in place with all Third parties to ensure adherence to all Privacy Policies.

Indigo Brokes's employees are obliged to respect the confidentiality of any personal information held by Indigo Brokes. All employees are required to sign an employment contract which includes a confidentiality clause.

Indigo Brokes will not reveal any personal information to anyone unless:

- It is compelled to comply with legal and regulatory requirements or when it is otherwise allowed by law
- It is in the public interest
- Indigo Brokes needs to do so to protect their rights

Indigo Brokes endeavours to take all reasonable steps to keep secure any information which they hold about an individual, and to keep this information accurate and up to date. If at any time, an individual discovers that information gathered about them is incorrect, they may contact Indigo Brokes to have the information corrected.

Indigo Brokes recognises the importance of protecting the privacy of information collected about individuals, in particular information that is capable of identifying an individual ("personal information").

CONDITIONS FOR THE LAWFUL PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

According to the POPI Act there are eight conditions that must be complied with to ensure that the processing of personal information is lawful. These conditions include:

1. Accountability

The responsible party must ensure that the conditions set out in Chapter 3 of the POPIA and all the measures that give effect to such conditions, are complied with at the time of determining the purpose and the means of the processing.

2. Processing Limitation

Personal information may only be processed in a lawful and reasonable manner that does not infringe on the privacy of the data subject.

Personal information may only be processed if:

- the data subject or a competent person, where the data subject is a child, consents to the processing;
- processing is necessary to carry out actions for the conclusion or performance of a contract to which the data subject is party;
- processing complies with an obligation imposed by law on the responsible party;
- processing protects a legitimate interest of the data subject;
- processing is necessary for the proper performance of a public law duty by a public body; or
- processing is necessary for pursuing the legitimate interests of the responsible party or of a third party to whom the information is supplied.
- Indigo Brokes will also ensure that any personal information that is processed by it was obtained directly from the data subject.

3. Purpose Specific

Indigo Brokes will process personal information only for specific, explicitly defined, and legitimate reasons. Indigo Brokes will inform data subjects of these reasons prior to collecting or recording the data subject's personal information.

4. Further Processing Limitation

Personal information will not be processed for a secondary purpose unless that processing is compatible with the original purpose.

Therefore, if Indigo Brokes wishes to process existing personal information for a purpose other than the purpose for which it was originally collected, Indigo Brokes will first obtain additional consent from the data subject.

5. Information Quality

Indigo Brokes will take reasonable steps to ensure that all personal information collected is complete, accurate and not misleading.

Where personal information is collected or received from third parties, Indigo Brokes will take reasonable steps to confirm that the information is correct by verifying the accuracy of the information directly with the data subject or by way of independent sources.

6. Openness

Indigo Brokes will take reasonable steps to inform all data subjects whose information is being collected of:

- The information being collected and where the information is not collected from the data subject, the source from which it is collected;
- The name and address of the responsible party;
- The purpose for which the information is being collected;
- Whether or not the supply of the information by that data subject is voluntary or mandatory;
- The consequences of failure to provide the information;
- Any particular law authorising or requiring the collection of the information;
- The fact that, where applicable, the responsible party intends to transfer the information to a third country or international organisation and the level of protection afforded to the information by that third country or international organisation.

7. Security Safeguards

The responsible party must secure the integrity and confidentiality of personal information in its possession or under its control by taking appropriate, reasonable technical and organisational measures to prevent loss of, damage to or unauthorised destruction of personal information; and unlawful access to or processing of personal information.

To achieve the abovementioned results, the responsible party must take reasonable measures to:

- identify all reasonably foreseeable internal and external risks to personal information in its possession or under its control;
- establish and maintain appropriate safeguards against the risks identified;
- regularly verify that the safeguards are effectively implemented; and
- ensure that the safeguards are continually updated in response to new risks or deficiencies in previously implemented safeguards.
